

CARTA TECNICA REGIONALE

COMUNE DI CERIGNOLA
(FG)

The coat of arms of Cerignola features a shield divided horizontally. The upper half is blue and contains a white stork standing on its right leg, holding a bundle of reeds in its beak. The lower half is yellow. Above the shield is a golden crown with red accents. The shield is flanked by two green olive branches that curve upwards and meet at the bottom.